

Lowes' Wong Infant School

Anti-Bullying Policy

March 2017

Introduction

At Lowe's Wong Infant School we aim to provide a safe, caring and friendly climate for learning for all our pupils to allow them to improve their life chances and help them maximise their potential.

We expect pupils to act safely and feel safe in school, including that they understand the issues relating to bullying and that they feel confident to seek support from school should they feel unsafe.

We want parents and carers to feel confident that their children are safe and cared for in school and incidents when they do arise are dealt with promptly and well.

The school is aware of its legal obligations and role within the local community supporting parents and working with other agencies outside the school where appropriate.

Definition of Bullying

‘Behaviour by an individual or group repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally’

Preventing and tackling Bullying – Advice for School Leaders, Staff and Governing Bodies (June 2011). At Lowe’s Wong Infant School we explain this to the children as ‘several times on purpose’.

How does bullying differ from teasing/falling out between friends or other types of aggressive behaviour?

- There is a deliberate intention to hurt or humiliate.
- There is a power imbalance that makes it hard for the victim to defend themselves.
- It is usually persistent.

Occasionally an incident may be deemed to be bullying even if the behaviour has not been repeated or persistent – if it fulfils all other descriptions of bullying. This possibility should be considered, particularly in cases of hate crime related bullying and cyberbullying. If the victim might be in danger then intervention is urgently required.

What does bullying look like?

Bullying can include:

- name calling
- taunting
- mocking
- making offensive comments
- physical assault
- taking or damaging belongings
- cyber bullying - inappropriate text messaging and e mailing; sending offensive or degrading images by phone or via the internet
- producing offensive graffiti
- gossiping and spreading hurtful and untruthful rumours
- excluding people from groups.

Although bullying can occur between individuals it can often take place in the presence (virtually or physically) of others who become the 'bystanders' or 'accessories'.

Why are children and young people bullied?

Specific types of bullying include:

- hate crime related bullying of children with special educational needs or disabilities, homophobic bullying or related to race, religion or culture
- bullying related to appearance or health
- bullying of young carers or looked after children or otherwise related to home circumstances
- sexist or sexual bullying.

There is no hierarchy of bullying – all forms should be taken equally seriously and dealt with appropriately.

Where does bullying take place?

Bullying is not confined to the school premises. Advice for school leaders to help with this problem and its effects on children, acknowledges that the problem also persists outside school, in the local community, on the journey to and from school and may continue into Further Education.

The increasing use of digital technology and the internet has also provided new and particularly intrusive ways for bullies to reach their victims

Bullying can take place between:

- young people
- young people and staff
- between staff
- individuals or groups

Reporting and responding to bullying

Our school has clear and well publicized systems to report bullying for the whole school community (including staff, parents/carers, children and young people) this includes those who are the victims of bullying or have witnessed bullying behaviour (bystanders).

Procedures

Children at Lowe's Wong Infant School are encouraged to report bullying to their teachers or MDSA's. Parents and carers should report any bullying to the class teacher or Mrs Speed. At Lowe's Wong Infant school we define bullying as "Several times on purpose".

Staff and Visitors should speak to Mrs Speed or one of the Deputy Headteachers. The Headteacher's office can be used to ensure confidentiality.

All reported incidents will be taken seriously and investigated involving all parties. The staff is aware of and follows the same procedures:

The steps the school will take are:

- Interviewing all parties
- Informing parents
- Implement appropriate disciplinary sanctions in accordance with the school's Behaviour Policy. These should be graded according to the seriousness of the incident but should send out a message that bullying is unacceptable
- Responses may also vary according to the type of bullying and may involve other agencies where appropriate
- Follow up especially keeping in touch with the person who reported the situation, parents/carers. This may include having a clear complaints procedure for parents who are not satisfied with the schools actions
- A range of responses and support appropriate to the situation - solution focused, restorative approach, circle of friends, individual work with victim, perpetrator, referral to outside agencies if appropriate
- Liaising with the wider community if the bullying is taking place off the school premises i.e. in the case of cyberbullying or hate crime.
- If appropriate involving other agencies who may be able to support.

Recording bullying and evaluating the policy

Bullying incidents will be recorded by the member of staff who deals with the incident, or the Headteacher, and this will be stored by the Anti-bullying coordinator.

The information stored will be used to ensure individuals incidents are followed up. It will also be used to identify trends and inform preventative work in school and development of the policy. This information will be discussed by staff in regular staff meetings at least every term.

This information will be presented to the governors as part of the annual report.

The policy will be reviewed and updated annually.
